Description:

Cooking is fine chemistry but not all Heston recipes include dry ice and dangerous steps, actually – look beyond the circus and Heston is making some really nice food.

This book includes the recipes you saw Heston cook in the Australian Masterchef 2013 – in the Heston Blumenthal week.. Bacon and egg icecream etc.

If you like to find recipes that will impress – look no further, this book has them.

There is a chapter dedicated to Sous-vide so that you can take advantage of this new gadget in the kitchen – one of them is for scrambled eggs and why not.

I am glad I bought this book – you should do the same
