Description:

Look at my copy of Ultimate Home Cooking by Gordon Ramsey! I like to mark recipes I want to try later with a little colourful Post-it Index strip – as you can see; I will have to come back to this book more than once.

I am sure that it helps that I have seen Gordon cook some of these dishes on TV – I know I can cook this – it looks delicious and I now want to cook it to taste it at home.

Well done Gordon – and Gordon, I like you better when you are not angry!
